

7. Contractions

Warm up: Write or state the definition of a contraction.

Review: A contraction is a word made by putting two words together. When the words are joined, an apostrophe shows where a letter or letters have been omitted (left out).

Example: we + are = we're

Practice: Circle the contractions in the sentences below. Write what two words were joined on the space provided.

1. I can't get the top off of this medicine bottle. _____
2. You shouldn't overeat or you may get a stomachache. _____
3. We're learning about illnesses that people may get while fasting. _____
4. I'm glad that I had a good suhoor this morning, alhamdulillah.

5. She's fasting for the first time this year. _____
6. He'll be glad he went to bed early tonight so that he can get up in time for suhoor, Insha Allah. _____
7. Did Ummy say that we're going to the store to buy something for Iftar? _____
8. Our dinner guests said that they'll meet us at the masjid this evening before Iftar, insha Allah. _____
9. Qadr Allah, we didn't finish our suhoor before the adhan was called.

10. We couldn't hear the adhan from the living room. _____

Apply:

Write five sentences on your own about Ramadan or illnesses one may have during the fasting of Ramadan. Include at least one contraction in each one and tell what two words were joined.

Write on the back of this page.